After finalizing the treasurers deed/quiet title process, Phases 1 through 3 were advertised for auction in the Summer of 2023 and three of the parcels were sold to the highest bidders. At a recent work session, the BoCC expressed their desire to donate to non-profit organizations for developing workforce housing instead of accepting the low auction bids that were submitted on the remaining 35 parcels. At the September 26, 2023 work session, the Community Development Corporation and Habitat for Humanity gave a presentation on a plan for such a development and provided their preferences to which parcels each organization would want. This agenda item presents the quit claim deeds for the 35 parcels.
