E. Consideration Of The Appointment Of A Budget Officer For Fiscal Year 2023

Pursuant to C.R.S. 27-1-104, the governing body of each local government shall designate or appoint a person to prepare the annual budget for submittal to that governing body. The County Manager has historically been designated as the Budget Officer for Archuleta County.

F. Consideration And Approval Of The 2023 County Merit System Certification

Colorado counties are required by both federal and state law to administer and operate their county merit systems consistent with federal "merit system principles." These principles require that county merit system employees be afforded certain basic protections against political interference, summary discipline/termination, and groundless discipline/termination. Failure to adhere to these merit system principles will place federal and state funding of human services programs at risk. Staff recommends approval of this certification. Responsible Staff: Isabel Vita, DHS Director.
